

Frequently asked questions about the November Calendar Raffle

Where have you been?

The Calendar Raffle had been a yearly activity by the Society and was very successful. It was one of many things that Covid prevented.

We are delighted to be back for Founders Day this year.

Is a donation tax deductible?

Yes. The Lee Historical Society, Incorporated, is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) corporation and donations are tax deductible.

Who benefits from the money raised?

The proceeds from this raffle fund a scholarship annually for a Lee High School graduating student who will be going on to continue their education. They also support our operating expenses to provide free public programs that are associated with the history of Lee. The Society also provides websites which include general information and a listing of Lee's veterans.

Who donates the prizes?

All of our prizes are donated through the kindness of area merchants, people and organizations.

How are the prizes given?

The Board of the Society will draw the winners and will deliver prizes to winners, either through the mail, or in person.

How are winners announced / notified?

Winners will be announced each day in the month of November and will be notified personally to collect on their raffle ticket.
